CENTRAL Chimes
Central Presbyterian Church
PETERSBURG, ILLINOIS

Hello Friends:

I hope you are staying warm! As I write this article, my boys are home from school on an e-learning day because it's pretty cold out there. According to WAND news at 10:46 a.m. on January 26, 2026, it is 4 degrees, with a wind chill of -7. You can put that in your diary for future reference! The boys are working on their homework for today. Two do not need any supervision, and one needs quite a bit of supervision!

I think often about how my boys are getting older, and that as they get older, they are changing so much. Before I know it, they will be young adults and my influence over them will continue to wane. I know this is the natural order of things, but it really bothers me that time is slipping through my fingers, and sometimes I fear that my boys are in a sense "slipping through my fingers" as well. I'm sure you parents and grandparents can relate to that. I would suppose that it doesn't just apply to parenting, but to other relationships as well. Some of what I'm feeling boils down to power and/or agency and how we use it or don't use it for the benefit of our family When it comes to a parental relationship, or a teacher/student relationship, or a mentor/mentee relationship, or a grandparent/grandchild relationship, what power do we have and how do we use that power in order to educate, train, and model care, compassion, a healthy work ethic, as well as a love for Christ. How many times have I used my agency/power to have the conversation I needed to have with one of my children? How many times did I choose patience instead of grumpiness (or the other way around)? How many times have I used "I'm too tired" as an excuse not to do something fun with the kids that they wanted to do? There will be a time, in the near future, when I will really miss these years, and I'm not sure I'm living "in the moment" with my family as I should.

As we all do, I pray for God's Grace. I pray that He will take me by the hand and lead me down a healthier and more God-honoring path. I pray that Bethany and I can more fully live out that beautiful scripture from Proverbs 22:6: “Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it."

Amen!

Administration Committee News

Financial

- Our 2025-year-end income was $43,387.84 above budget and expenses were below budget by $11,291.84. Our income is above budget partially due to transferring $20,000.00 from the General Fund CDs but we also had very generous December donations from pledging members.
- Regardless of budget, our income is $5,227.05 above our expenses. Without the $20,000 transfer we would be $14,772.95 below budget.
- The checkbook balance, including Obligated Funds, is $46,554.98. This balance does not include one additional $20K CDs that is held in savings.
  - The one additional $20K CD matured on 12/19/25 and was transferred to our Edward Jones money market account (currently paying 3.5%). This will be drawn out as needed in 2026 before utilizing any monies from our Endowment Fund accounts. This will be reflected in line items on the 2026 budget.
- The Committee completed the 2026 budget and submitted to Session for approval:
  - The 2026 budget includes a line item for transferring the $20K monies from the Edward Jones Money Market account as needed. This $20K came from the CD that was formed when we were holding excess money in our general checking account.

    - The budget also includes the possibility of transferring $10K from proceeds from the Endowment fund. Those funds will be drawn off of the dividends earned from our investments which will be transferred into the Money Market Fund instead of being reinvested.
- Rhonda and Chris have completed the annual report on the Designated and Endowment Fund.
- Steve has completed the Administration Committee annual report.
- The IRS standard mileage rate for 2026 is 72.5 cents per mile.
- MOTION The following people to be approved as money counters:
    - Beth Kiningham, Marilyn Montgomery, Rhonda Plaeger, Rebecca Rowe, and Alice Studzinski.

Building and Ongoing Projects

- Work is near completion on the painting of the Fellowship Hall. This is being paid for through the Memorial Committee and completed by Mark Goeringer.
- Presbytery Safety & Security Training has been moved to February 28, 2026, and will be attended by David Drake.

Catechism Corner

Catechism Corner From κατηχέω, ("to teach orally")

I thought it might be useful for us to review and reflect a little each month from a catechism used by the PCUSA. Hopefully this will serve a purpose in helping us think deeper about our faith and even inspire us towards a greater pursuit of Christian Theology grounded in Holy Scripture. I pray you find this new section in the newsletter helpful. I enjoy talking theology so come by the church if you have questions or thoughts about these!

The Study Catechism: Full Version Approved by the 210th General Assembly (1998) of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Question 124: What Prayer serves as our rule or pattern?

Our rule or pattern is found in the Lord's Prayer, which Jesus taught to his disciples:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and forever. Amen.

Those words express everything that we may desire and expect from God.

Question 125: What is the design of the Lord's Prayer?

The Lord's Prayer falls into two parts, preceded by an opening address, and concluded by a "doxology" or word of praise. Each part consists of three petitions. The first part concerns God's glory; the second part, our salvation. The first part involves our love for God; the second part, God's love for us. The petitions in part one will not be fulfilled perfectly until the life to come; those in part two relate more directly to our present needs here and now.

Question 126: What is meant by addressing God as "Our Father in heaven"?

By addressing God as "our Father," we draw near with childlike reverence, and place ourselves securely in God's hands. Although God is certainly everywhere, God is said to exist and dwell "in heaven." For while God is free to enter into the closest relationship with the creature, God does not belong to the order of created beings. "Heaven" is the seat of divine authority, the place from which God reigns in glory and brings salvation to earth. Our opening address expresses our confidence that we rest securely in God's intimate care, and that nothing on earth lies beyond the reach of God's grace.

Romans 8:15 "For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!'"

Jeremiah 23:23-24 "Am I a God nearby, says the Lord, and not a God far off? Who can hide in secret places so that I cannot see them? Says the Lord. Do I not fill heaven and earth? Says the Lord."

Acts 17:24-25 "The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands."

Question 127: What is meant by the first petition, "Hallowed be your name"?

This petition is placed first, because it comprehends the goal and purpose of the whole prayer. The glory of God's name is the highest concern in all that we pray and do. God's "name" stands for God's being as well as for God's attributes and works. When we pray for this name to be "hallowed," we ask that we and all others will know and glorify God as God really is, and that all things will be so ordered that they serve God truly for God's sake.

Jeremiah 9:23-24 "Thus says the Lord: Do not let the wise boast in their wisdom, do not let the mighty boast in their might, do not let the wealthy boast in their wealth; but let those who boast, boast in this, that they understand and know me, that I am the Lord; I act with steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth, for in these things I delight, says the Lord!"

Romans 11:36 "For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever. Amen."

Quotation Station for December

(Quotes on "Evangelism")

"I believe in human dignity as the source of national purpose, human liberty as the source of national action, the human heart as the source of national compassion, and in the human mind as the source of our invention and our ideas." --John F. Kennedy

"The purpose of life is not to be happy. It is to be useful, to be honorable, to be compassionate, to have it make some difference that you have lived and lived well." --Ralph Waldo Emerson

"Compassion will cure more sins than condemnation." --Henry Ward Beecher

"I choose kindness—I will be kind to the poor, for they are alone. Kind to the rich, for they are afraid. And kind to the unkind, for such is how God has treated me." --Max Lucado

"No matter how low down you are; no matter what your disposition has been; you may be low in your thoughts, words, and actions; you may be selfish; your heart may be overflowing with corruption and wickedness; yet Jesus will have compassion upon you. He will speak comforting words to you; not treat you coldly or spurn you, as perhaps those of earth would, but will speak tender words, and words of love and affection and kindness. Just come at once. He is a faithful friend—a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." --D. I. Moody

Thanks to all that donated to the "Christmas Joy" offering this year. A total of $627.00 was received. The Christmas Joy offering provides assistance to current and retired church workers and their families in their time of need and develops our future leaders at Presbyterian-related schools and colleges equipping communities of color.

2026 Per Capita

The Per Capita amount for each member for 2026 is $39.00. In order to assure proper recording, we ask two things: 1. Please use the blue Per Capita designated envelopes for your contribution. Envelopes can be found in the Narthex or in the center of each pew. 2. Please write a separate check for the Per Capita contribution.

What Does Per Capita Mean?
It is a Medieval Latin term that literally translated means, "by heads."

What Is It For?
Per Capita takes all the expenses of the Presbytery, the Synod, and General Assembly and breaks those costs down by the actual head count of the total population of active members in the Presbyterian Church (USA).

Why Do We Pay It?
As Presbyterians, we are connectional people – meaning that we understand the importance of being connected with other Presbyterians. Per Capita payments help our denomination to take our combined efforts to effect change in our country and around the world through the various ministry and mission programs at the various denominational levels.

Who Pays It?
Every active member is assessed $39.00.

Who Is An Active Member?
Adults and confirmed Youth who participate in the work and worship of church; who have joined the church; and who are listed on Central's rolls (official records of the church that are reported to the denomination).

2026 Fellowship

The "Second Sunday Fellowship" following worship each month is back in full swing and hosts are needed for 2026. A sign-up sheet is on the table in the Narthex for those willing to volunteer to provide refreshments for our fellowship time.

2026 Election of Officers/Annual Congregational Meeting

Please plan to be in attendance on February 1, as we have many activities that day. The Nominating Committee will present a 2026 slate of Elders, Deacons, and Nominating Committee for election. Installation of the newly elected officers will take place following the election. Our Annual Congregational Meeting to review the 2025 Annual Report will then be held; please review the published Annual Report before the meeting. We will need a quorum to conduct this necessary church business, so please plan accordingly!

Lent 2026

Lent for the year 2026 starts on Wednesday, February 18, and ends on Thursday, April 2, Holy Thursday.

Lent is a Christian annual period that starts on Ash Wednesday lasting for 40 days (not including Sundays) representing the 40 days Jesus spent fasting in the wilderness. This 40-day period for Christians is a time to reflect, fast, and give penance in preparation for the resurrection of Christ Easter Sunday.

Is Lent 40 Days?

Lent for Christians starts on Ash Wednesday and ends on either the evening of Maundy Thursday or on sundown of Holy Saturday (day before Easter Sunday). However, the practices of Lent do not end until sundown on Holy Saturday for all Christian denominations. So it is 44 days from Ash Wednesday to Maundy Thursday and another two days with Good Friday and Holy Saturday added to give a total of 46 days for Lent. But Sundays are excluded from fasting during Lent and with 6 Sundays removed from the count we get Lent being a 40-day liturgical period.

Ash Wednesday Service

Central Presbyterian Church and United Methodist Church will combine their Ash Wednesday service again this year. It will be at UMC on February 18 at 7:00 p.m.

National Wear Red Day

February 6, 2026, National Wear Red Day, is the icon day of American Heart Month. On the first Friday in February, join us as we wear RED and help raise awareness of women's No. 1 killer – cardiovascular disease. On National Wear Red Day, raise your voice, wear red and encourage others to do the same. Women everywhere deserve to be seen, heard, and celebrated. Cardiovascular disease doesn't define us, and that's why we're standing together. We have the power to change the future of women's heart health.

Go Red for Women the First Friday in February Cardiovascular disease is the No. 1 killer of women – but together, we can change the future of women's heart health. On National Wear Red Day, we wear RED because every heart tells a story, and women at every age, stage, and season of life deserve to be celebrated and supported as we take on our greatest health threat. This American Heart Month, Go Red for Women is reminding everyone that they are often the first responder in a cardiac emergency. Women are less likely to receive CPR from a bystander. Anyone can be the difference before professional help arrives and this starts with knowing CPR. CPR is a civic duty. You don't need medical training to learn CPR; you need knowledge, courage, and the willingness to act. Heroism is not limited to uniforms, it's everyday people stepping up for others.

Find other ways you can learn to save a life and get connected at CONNECT TO A HEALTHIER YOU. GoRedforWomen.org. Learn more about cardiovascular risks, prevention, healthy lifestyle, risk reduction and more. CONNECT WITH YOUR COMMUNITY. Volunteer, attend an event, join a philanthropic group, or connect with Go Red for Women on social media. CONNECT TO SUPPORT. Living with cardiovascular disease or caring for someone who does? Find support from women who have been there. CONNECT TO RESEARCH. Participate in research and inspire the next generation of women leaders in STEM careers. MAKE AN IMPACT. Help advance our mission and advocate for policies that support all women's health and well-being. When we come together and Go Red, our collective strength becomes unstoppable. Together, we can rewrite the story of women's hearth health – creating a stronger, healthier future for everyone!

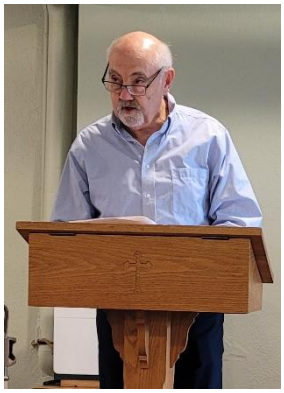
January Scenes from Central



Strawberry Cheesecake Brownies

Taste of Home

Ingredients

1 cup butter, cubed
2 cups sugar
1/3 cup baking cocoa
2 tsps. vanilla extract
4 large eggs, room temperature
2 cups all-purpose flour
1 tsp. salt

Topping

1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
1/3 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. vanilla extract
1 large egg, room temperature
3/4 cup seedless strawberry jam

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 350^0. In a microwave-safe bowl, melt butter. Stir in sugar, cocoa and vanilla. Add eggs, 1 at a time, whisking to blend after each addition. Add flour and salt; stir just until combined. Spread into greased 13x9 inch baking pan.
2. Meanwhile, in a large bowl, beat cream cheese and sugar until smooth. Add egg and vanilla; beat on low speed just until blended. Spread cheesecake mixture over batter and drop strawberry jam by tablespoonfuls on top. Cut through jam and cheesecake mixture with a knife to swirl.
3. Bake until filling in center is almost set, 30-35 minutes. Cool 1 hour in pan on a wire rack. Refrigerate for at least 2 hours. Cut into bars.

Total Time/Prep: 20 minutes Cook: 30 minutes + chilling Yield: 2 dozen

Grinch Fudge

Taste of Home

Ingredients

1 1/2 tsps. plus 1/4 cup butter, softened, divided
2 cups sugar
1/2 cup sour cream
12 squares (1 oz. ea.) white baking chocolate, chopped
1 jar (7 oz.) marshmallow cream
1/2 tsp. peppermint extract
5 drops green food coloring
1/4 cup heart sprinkles

Directions

1. Line an 8-inch square pan with foil. Grease the foil with 1 1/2 teaspoons butter; set aside.
2. In a large heavy saucepan, combine sugar, sour cream and remaining 1/4 cup butter. Cook and stir over medium heat until sugar is dissolved. Bring to a rapid boil; cook until a candy thermometer reads 234^0 (soft-ball stage), about 5 minutes.
3. Remove from the heat; stir in white chocolate, marshmallow cream and peppermint extract until melted. Pour half the fudge into prepared pan. Add green food coloring to mixture remaining in saucepan. Spoon over white fudge in pan; if desired, swirl with a knife. Sprinkle with heart sprinkles. Chill until firm.
4. Using foil, lift fudge out of pan. Gently peel off foil; cut fudge into 1-inch squares. Store in refrigerator.
